HOLY FAMILY SCHOOL, FARAKKA, West Bengal is one of the institutions run by the Congregation of Holy Family which manage and administer over a hundred and fifty institutions in India and abroad. It was "a dream come true" of St. Mother Mariam Thresia, the visionary pioneer in the field of Family Apostolate and women empowerment through education. The founding of this school by the Bhagalpur Holy Family Society which is a Religious and Charitable Organization Registered under the Societies Registration Act. 1860 was an answer to the increasing demands for an English Medium school for the children in and around Farakka, the hub of people with various origin and culture. Today, the institution has soared to envious heights of prestige and eminence. The school has been given the Non-Objection Certificate by the Minority Commission and the Certificate of Affiliation from the COUNCIL FOR THE INDIAN SCHOOL CERTIFICATE EXAMINATION (CISCE.) Board New Delhi in 2006.

While our Education is directed towards the development of the person, we too are primarily concerned with instilling Gospel values in those we educate and forming responsible citizens in the country who are ready to take their place in social, political and cultural life with selflessness and zeal. Our special focus will be the formation of the committed people who are filled with a sense of mission to their country and to the world. We strive to implement the national aims and objectives of education through the goals our school has discovered and which is realized and propagated by all our staff and students.

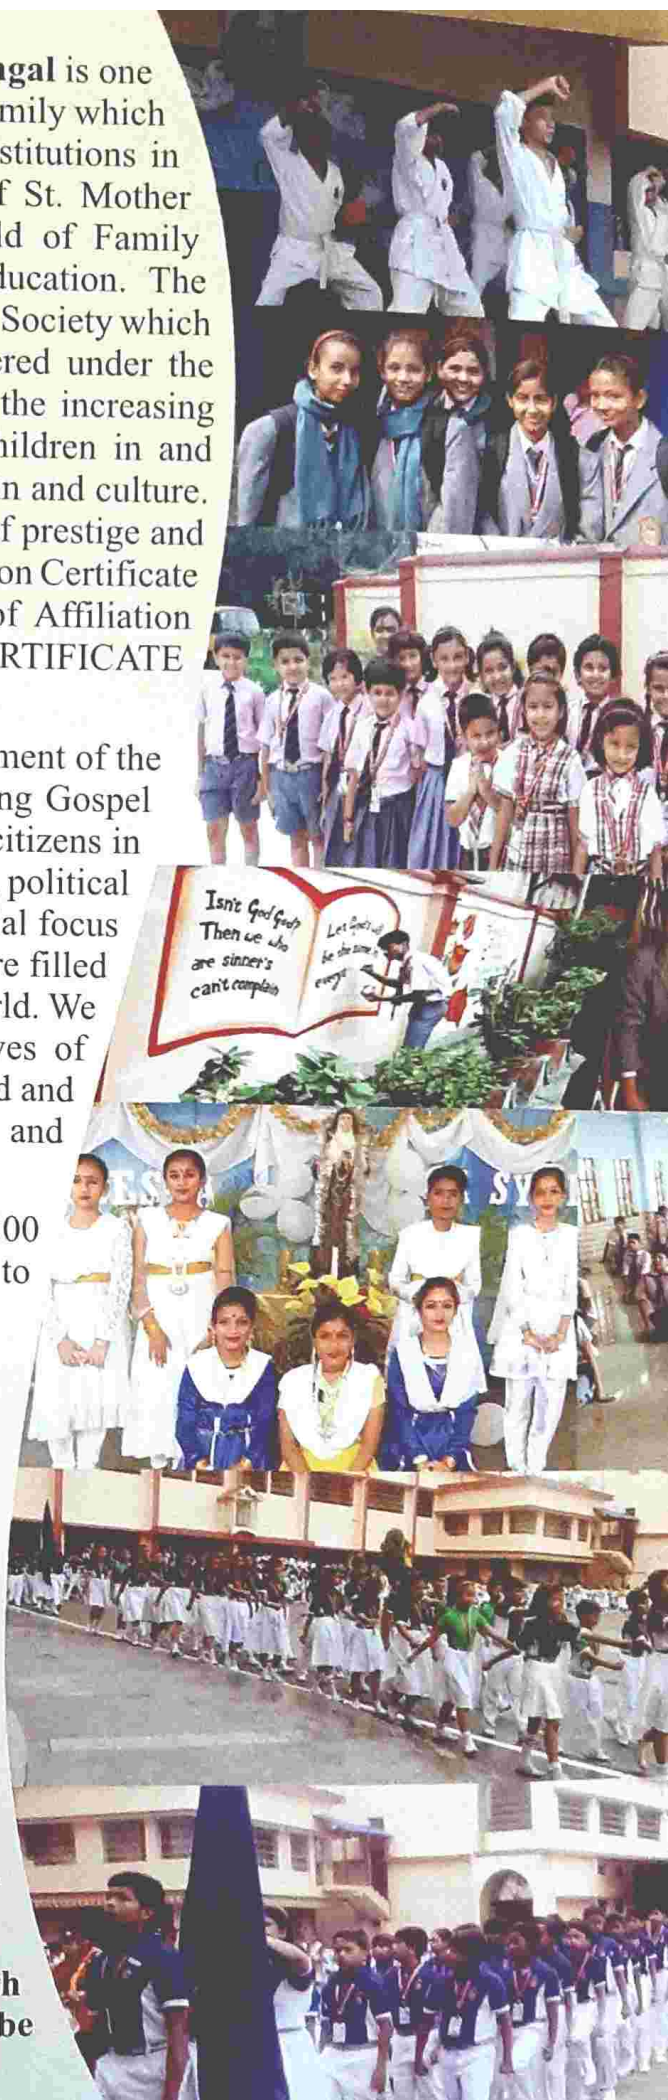

It is a co-educational school with approximately 1500 students on its rolls studying from Classes Nursery to Class10.
